Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We, the collective authors of this work, are six individuals who grew up in the same coastal city of sunny southern California. We found one another in the (in the most polite terms we can use) experience of high school and became united by a love of expression, a love of capturing the emotion that was around us. As we eventually all graduated from our common factor of public education, we went our separate ways in the following year, taking a variety of paths with a variety of decisions that went a variety of ways between good and bad. Faced with the challenges of the real, adult world, we did what we could to make sense of our lives: we wrote about them. The book contains one-hundred and twenty poems, essays, stories, and any other or unclassifiable way of written expression. Each author has twenty pieces here, an amount designed to give enough insight into their journey, as well as showcase enough of their approach to not only the topic but writing itself. Twenty is also a sort of marker for us, a boundary of sorts that we are fast approaching in age. We are all, at the time of this work, riding the border around nineteen: an awkward age of transition. All these works are five-hundred words; they are meant to be snippets of our experiences, individual thoughts connected to the larger human existence which, we are afraid, cannot fit into one volume of work. So, we present instead instances -points- along our larger journeys, hoping you can connect the dots. This is a longitudinal study, of sorts- a psychological analysis of our sample population throughout this...
