Intelligence becomes ours in the degree in which we use it and accept responsibility for consequences. It is not ours originally or by production. It thinks is a truer psychological statement than I think. Thoughts sprout and vegetate; ideas proliferate. They come from deep unconscious sources. I think is a statement about voluntary action. Some suggestion surges from the unknown. Our active body of habits appropriates it. The suggestion then becomes an assertion. It no longer merely comes to us. It is accepted and uttered by us. We act upon it and thereby assume, by implication, its consequences. The stuff of belief and proposition is not originated by us. It comes to us from others, by education, tradition and the suggestion of the environment. Our intelligence is bound up, so far as its materials are concerned, with the community life of which we are...
