Excerpt: . . . that Thomas Murphy, of Madison County, died in 1815, possessed of negroes and other personal property; that his estate was unembarrassed and free of debt; that he left his widow, Frances J Murphy, and two infant children; Nancy, of whom he, the petitioner, was guardian, and John, of whom Clifton was guardian; that the widow was appointed administratrix of the estate, by the County Court of Madison, and shortly afterwards intermarried with Clifton, and that she died in 1827. Whereupon, he prayed a legal distribution of the estate. The cause was submitted to the decision of the judge of the County Court, under an agreed statement of facts, which was in the following words: Ve agree that the property referred to belonged to Thomas Murphy, W110 died at the time stated in the petition, leaving his widow, Frances J. Murphy, and two children named in...
