St. Martin's. 1 Paperback(s), 2010. soft. Book Condition: New. The author of Edward VI: The Lost King of England, British MP Chris Skidmore returns with this investigation into one of the most scandalous episodes of Elizabeth I's rule. Robert Dudley was widely known as the queen's favorite among her courtiers, and was presumed to be the man she would marry, were he free to do so. So when Robert's wife Amy Robsart was found dead at the bottom of a staircase, foul play was immediately suspected, and despite the coroner's ruling of an accidental death, Elizabeth's reputation remained in danger. Skidmore unearths recently discovered forensic evidence in this "tantalizing, authoritative, and in-depth analysis of a centuries-old mystery that continues to stir imaginations." Publishers Weekly 430.
