Excerpt: . . . an injustice to themselves and to all who are dependent upon the success of the business they are connected with. We are using our best endeavor to keep the mill running full, so as to reduce, in this way, the cost of getting out the merchandise and, through giving steady employment, compensate, as far as possible, all connected with the company. It is only by AN INCREASED OUTPUT AND A LESSENING OF GENERAL EXPENSES that we shall be able to maintain the present rate of wages. No Time for Discord Desirable conditions will not continue or be brought about in the United States through lack of co-operation, discord and strikes. Our prosperous country apparently now has to deal, on the one side, with a lot of selfish profiteers and dishonest money grabbers; and on the other side, with foolish and equally unwise and detestable..
